Maryland Community Services Locator (MDCSL)

The Center for Substance Abuse Research (CESAR) at the University of Maryland, College Park invites law enforcement officials, service providers, community members and others to use the MDCSL to find Maryland resources.

A statewide expansion of the MDCSL is underway, with statewide program services becoming available beginning July 2008. Program service listings are statewide unless otherwise specified below. If you are searching for Substance Abuse Treatment Programs, you can perform a more detailed search for specific types of programs by selecting the "Advanced Search" feature (currently available for Baltimore City ONLY). Program listings are verified for accuracy on an ongoing basis. Verified program listings note the month and year when last updated. We recommend that users contact agencies by phone before visiting their location due to frequent changes in program locations and availability.
